

RCACF NEW MEMBER PROCEDURE

ver.02142016

You must be a member of the Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA) in order to join the Remote Control Association of Central Florida (RCACF)

(Executive Board)

- 1. All new members are to be Reviewed by an Executive Board Member(s). If approved by the Board, on to item #2.

(Membership Chairman)

- 2. New members will then obtain and fill out a membership application from the Membership Chairman. Show proof of current AMA membership, along with any other required waivers or licenses (Turbine Waiver, FCC license, etc).
- 3. New member will pay the current annual dues to the Membership Chairman.
- 4. Picture of new member will be taken for membership badge. Membership Badge will be given to new member at a later date. New member will be instructed to wear Membership Badge at all times while flying.

(Safety Director)

- 5. The Safety Director will review the RCACF Safety Rules with the new member. New member will be given a copy of Field/Safety Rules for their signature. Additional copy will be given to the new member for future reference. Safety Director will keep the signed copy for Club records.

(Chief Flight Instructor)

- 6. Flight review with Chief Flight Instructor. New member will be given a list of Certified Flight Instructors to contact for a scheduled flight review. Upon completion of the flight review, the CFI will approve new member for solo flight or recommend flight instruction.